

“The Pillars of Parenting” 2024 Psychology Conference

Date: 14th October 2024

From 9.30 am to 4.00 pm

Venue: The Arc Winchester

(Formerly Winchester Discovery Centre) Jewry Street, Winchester, SO23 8SB

Speakers include:

- Dr Kevin Gallagher, MD: Amberleigh Care Ltd.

Kevin will review the current residential care landscape and his research, focusing on ‘relational practice’ and developments in commissioning approaches in therapeutic care.

- Dr Gillian Shotton, Chartered Educational Psychologist

“Weaving different stories: A Narrative-Based Approach to Life Story Work.” Introducing a narrative-based approach to life story work. Providing insights and tools to help young people talk about and reframe their experiences to help them build relationships.

- Julia Alfano, Chartered Educational Psychologist

Julia will update us on her professional doctorate findings with specific reference to her POP and insights from using ‘Emotional Warmth Parenting’ and how she has incorporated the management of adultification biases in working with teenagers and the role of play and teenagers as a way of managing dysregulation and violence into the POP framework.

- Dr Kerry Pringle Hampshire Children’s Home registered manager.

Kerry has an interesting case study to present from her children’s home

- Colin Maginn Director of the Pillars of Parenting Ltd.

Colin highlights the power of finding and using strengths and how the “Emotional Warmth Parenting” approach supports those in the parenting role.

Booking form:

If you would like to attend our 2024 Psychology Conference on the 14th of October 2024, please fill in your details below and email this form to colinmaginn@gmail.com

Places are limited, so you will receive an email confirming that you have an allocated place or that the conference allocation is full. The programme will be available before the end of September.

Title	First Name:
Last Name:
Organisations name:
Position
Email:	